ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
CASES SHOULD NOT BE CONSOLIDATED

BERNASCONI PELUFO, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

NUNA BABY ESSENTIALS, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 25-cv-02961-AMO

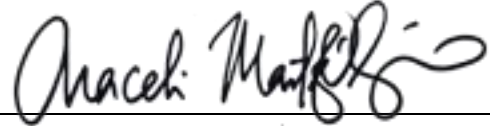

Plaintiffs in each of the above-captioned cases filed overlapping class action complaints, asserting consumer protection claims against Defendant based on the manufacture and sale of its Rava car seats. Given the overlap between the two cases, the Court ORDERS all parties to SHOW CAUSE why these actions should not be consolidated under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(a)(2). Each set of Plaintiffs shall file a written response, of no more than three pages, to this order by no later than July 22, 2025. Defendant may also file a response, of no more than three pages, to this order by no later than July 22, 2025. All parties are expected to meet and confer prior to filing their responses. Should the parties reach agreement on consolidation, they may file a stipulation and proposed order in lieu of a written response by no later than July 22, 2025.

The pending motions to dismiss are ADMINISTRATIVELY TERMINATED, subject to re-submission, if appropriate, following resolution of the consolidation issue.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
